

Curriculum Vitae

Antonella Testa

SUMMARY

Front End web developer, with a recently finished traineeship in the field, currently living in Dublin, Ireland. For the last year and a half I have been studying web development and now is the time to look for a job where I can continue learning and progressing.

I like to be updated and learn new techniques that help me progress as a web developer.

I am open to trying new challenges that take me out of my comfort zone.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Amazon, Warehouse Worker - Barcelona (Spain)

June 2018 - December 2018 (seasonal work)
